

VOICE COLLECTIVE

AN OPEN EVENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE WHO HEAR VOICES OR SEE VISIONS, PARENTS & YOUTH WORKERS

I used to think that I was the only person this is happening to. I thought I was freakish or wrong. The group helped me realise that there are others out there with similar experiences. I'm not alone.

Peer support for young people who hear voices or see visions is coming to your area!

COME ALONG AND:

- ★ find out about Voice Collective peer support groups
- ★ meet other young people who hear voices or see visions
- ★ find out about how people can learn to cope with difficult voices or visions
- ★ hear from people who have recovered from overwhelming experiences
- ★ challenge the stigma around voice-hearing
- ★ help us plan the best way of launching Voice Collective group(s) in the North East

WHO IS IT FOR?

- ★ Young people who hear voices, see visions or have other unusual experiences
- ★ Parents, carers & family members
- ★ Youth workers and anyone interested in supporting the development of Voice Collective in The North.

SATURDAY 11 MAY

1.30 - 4.30PM

Culture Fusion

Voice Collective is Mind in Camden's London-wide project supporting children and young people (aged 6-18) who hear voices, see visions or have other unusual experiences.

Due to popular demand, members of the Voice Collective team are working in partnership with Hearing Voices Networks in the north and the Bradford EIP Team to develop peer support groups in your area.
